INTEREST AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Travel and Relaxation: I finally got to see the Ikogosi Warm Spring last December and am currently planning on the Twim end of the year picnic to Idanre Hills in Ondo state.

Reading: I have just finished one of Dan Brown conspiracy novel, "the lost symbols". I was propelled to after I read the "the holy grail". I love novels by John Grisham, talk of the painted house, bleaching, the last juror, the client etc.

Seeing Soccer and video gaming: Blue is my favorite color and I am always excited to watch my team go top of the table every week. Football is fun you know, but Chelsea makes it even more exciting. When Chelsea isn't playing during the week, I engage them on my PS4 console. Am presently in 2019/20200 season and we will be champion in a few days from now, wish that can translate to the real world.

Viewing Movies: I enjoy viewing quality movies. Not necessarily for their story lines, but the scripting, scene arrangement, costumes and the use of effects in telling the story. Movies like star war, Beirut, affairs of state, oro inu, savage, silver spoon, husbands of Lagos, celebrity marriage (English and Yoruba Nollywood) are really dear to me.

Writing: i am a very optimistic individual and I believe so much in soul lifting, writing some few good words of hope to the hopeless, encouraging the people around me and myself, learning from others experience and putting them to writing and also encouraging the younger ones makes writing a form of social service to my neighborhood
